

54 days to change the world. Day 3.

Today is the third day of this novena, we will be praying the Glorious mysteries in a spirit of petition.

Today as we pray the Glorious mysteries today, we will be completing the first cycle of the three different mysteries of the Rosary that are prayed throughout these 54 days. In preparation for the days to come, we can ground ourselves more fully in these mysteries through reflection and contemplation so as to deeply enter into them more completely.

Today, as we pray let's reflect on one of the Glorious mysteries...

The First Glorious Mystery – The Resurrection

Spiritual Fruit: Faith

On Good Friday, Jesus' body is placed in the tomb and His soul descends to the dead to announce the news of redemption. Fearing that the body may be taken, the chief priests place guards in front of the tomb. On Easter Sunday, the angel rolls back the stone of the tomb to reveal its emptiness, and the guards flee in astonishment and fear. Christ then appears to His disciples, risen from the dead in all His glory and splendor. This mystery teaches us that Christ Himself is the source of our future resurrection. Christ lives in the hearts of His faithful who await their fulfillment.
