You Are the Light of the World

Dear Saint Mary's Family, Jesus Loves you, He has a plan for your life which culminates in eternal paradise for you and your family, and He generously gifts us freely and abundantly everything we need to make it there.

This Sunday's Gospel is the second of five great discourses in

Matthew's Gospel, in which Pope Benedict XVI shared the following about its first verse where Jesus is moved with pity for the crowds:

Corpus Christi Procession at St. Mary's

"God is there to guard us and sustain us. Yes, even today the Lord hears the cry of the multitudes longing for joy, peace, and love... Even now, the compassionate "gaze" of Christ continues to fall upon individuals and peoples. He watches them, knowing that the divine "plan" includes their call to salvation. Jesus knows the perils that put this plan at risk, and He is moved with pity for the crowds. He chooses to defend them from the wolves even at the cost of His own life." - Message of His Holiness Benedict XVI for Lent 2006.

God knows his people, and our needs even better than we know ourselves. So what is Jesus' perfectly loving, perfectly compassionate, “cure” for what ails or even torments us and our loved ones? Amazingly, a key part of His answer is...we are. Or, we can be as, “The harvest is abundant but the laborers are few”. Jesus’ response to our suffering is to send out his followers, you and I. Today we are His hands, His feet, His voice.

Often attributed to Saint Mother Teresa, whose icon is in our St. Joseph Family Center, are the following quotes. “Stay where you are. Find your own Calcutta. Find the sick, the suffering and the lonely right there where you are — in your own homes and in your own families, in your workplaces and in your schools.” But what difference can I, one person, make? “If you want to change the world, go home and love your Family.” And for those of us hurting and unsure, “If you love until it hurts, there can be no more hurt, only more love.”

Jesus could have helped the crowds without His followers. He instead chose to include them in His mission, and to work through them. Where in our life today is Jesus asking us to bring His Love and healing as, “Without cost you have received; without cost you are to give”?

Your Seminarian and brother, Michael
